Volunteer Bill of Rights

Muskoka Seniors Home Assistance shall insure that the following rights of persons who are volunteering are fully respected and promoted:

- Sufficient knowledge. You are entitled to be kept informed about matters that affect you.
- Choose how, when and where you will serve. This also includes the right to choose when you want to stop serving.
- Express your opinions, ideas and criticisms to the staff and have these expressions resolved or, if necessary, forwarded to the Board of Directors.
- Meaningful and satisfying service.
- Express your individual creativity and share your personality and skills as well as time.
- Receive recognition for the service you provide.

Volunteer / Client Financial Policy

- Where a volunteer does not wish to receive expense money (mileage reimbursement) he / she should accept it, then donate it (all or in part) back to the agency in return for a tax-deductible receipt.
- No agency volunteer may charge for the time spent volunteering.
- All transportation arrangements are to be made through the office. If a client contacts a driver directly, the client should be referred to the Transportation Program to facilitate proper record keeping.
